2004 Annual Polar Bear Dive – Clear Springs Scuba Park

Well, there were 6 Diving Rebels to show for the Polar Bear event. Jima Watson, George Bartulevich, Doug Sheppard, Tommy Engle and Keith Weber represented the Rebels in the water. Vicki Albright was our moral support and chief gear up specialist.

The water was a balmy 52 degrees compared to the approximate 45 degrees the last couple of years. The day was extremely beautiful. It was relatively warm (68 –70) and overcast. It was perfect with a long sleeve shirt and dry clothes. Jima and I had camped there for the night before with 6 kids and 4 dogs and some in the camp didn't even get out of bed until almost noon since it was so pleasant.

We split into two teams for the dive and we all dove the new fuselage, which is at about 30ft. Visibility was good at 15 to 20 feet. We all had a good time. 🍷
